Let us pray for Peace

The war-like situation prevailing on the border with Pakistan is a matter of great concern. Our rulers and soldiers are maintaining utmost vigilance to safeguard the sovereignty of the nation and the safety of its people. In this context, as responsible citizens, let us earnestly pray for our motherland and for peace. I invite everyone to unite in prayer for this intention during the celebration of the Holy Qurbana tomorrow, Sunday, in all our churches and institutions. In a special manner, let us remember the soldiers on the war front and the people living in the border areas. Let us pray that lasting peace be established between both nations at the earliest!
