Ref. No. Priests/GR/89/2018

31 December 2018

Dear and Reverend Fathers,

Greetings from Bishop's House, Thuckalay! I am sure you had a meaningful celebration of Christmas in your respective settings. We have just entering a new year. Let me greet you, dear Fathers, a grace-filled New Year. May you experience God's choicest blessings throughout the year 2019!

Liturgically, the Syro-Malabar Church keeps the feast of Denha on 6 January and the Mission Week from 6 January to 12 January 2019. Denha is a Syriac word which means dawn or sunrise. Latin Church uses the term Epiphany, originating from Greek and means Appearance. Denha refers to the public manifestation of the Holy Trinity at the Baptism of Jesus, where God the Father testified Jesus as the Son of God and the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove (Cf. Mt 3:17; Mk 1:11; Lk 3:22). Thus the Holy Trinity is revealed to the world, so also Jesus as the Incarnate Son of God.

Denha is the feast of the great revelation of Jesus as the light of the world. Jesus is the real Sun that dawned in the world through Incarnation. During the hidden life of Jesus in Nazareth, the public did not recognize Him as the real Sun who illuminates the whole of humanity. He was manifested to the public by God the Father at His Baptism as we have seen above.

Zachariah, father of John the Baptist, prophesied "...when the day shall dawn upon us from on high to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death to guide our feet into the way of peace" (Lk.1:76-79). St Ephrem (+373) has written extensively about the coming of the saviour in terms of new dawn or sunrise. According to him Mary's conception was on April 10, and Jesus' birth was on January 6. During this time there had no great difference between the feast of Nativity and the feast of Denha and he wrote a hymn about it, entitled Hymnon the Nativity. Narsai wrote a memra about the Denha of Jesus under the title "The Hymn of the Denha of the Lord"

As you are well aware, the members of the Syro-Malabar Church celebrate Denha in two ways – as Pindiperunnal, which means banana trunk feast or as Rakkuliperunal, which means feast with a night bath.

In northern regions of Kerala like Thrissur, the feast of Denha is popular as Pindiperunnal. On the previous night of Denha, a decorated plantain trunk is erected in front of houses with many torches attached to it. The family members go around it singing a Syriac hymn "El Paiya," which means "God is light." Special dishes are also prepared during this time. Special prayers conducted in the churches.

In southern areas like Pala, this feast is popular as Rakkuliperunal – feast with night-bath in river. In imitation of Jesus' Baptism, people used to perform a ritual bath in nearby ponds or rivers singing psalms and other religious hymns on the previous night (ravu) of the feast of Denha.

Similar customs are found in other eastern Churches too. In the Coptic Church Denha was celebrated on the banks of river Nile, in the first millennium. Russian Orthodox Christians too keep similar practices. Priest blesses the water, as symbolic reminder of the purification of all water sources by the baptism of Jesus. At the end of the ceremony, people would jump into the water as a symbolic ritual of purification and a reminder of the baptism of Jesus and their own.

It is important to recognise that both the forms of celebrations refer to the great presence and action of God in Jesus. The season of Denha - Manifestation - also begins with the feast of Denha. And the prayers and readings refer to the public ministry of Jesus. Let us celebrate this feast in a worthy manner with our people.

The Fridays of this period are the commemoration days of the saints who bore witness to the mystery of revelation. These holy Fathers are the cornerstones on which is founded the witnessing value of Christ in this world. In this Friday-memorial, St John the Baptist, Apostles Peter and Paul, the Evangelists, St Stephan the first martyr, the Greek Doctors, the Syrian Doctors, the Patron Saint of the Church and all the Departed are remembered in this order according to the number of the weeks. Thus, the following Friday commemorations perfectly cope with the spirit of the season

Regarding the missionary week or preshithavaaram, our beloved Cardinal Mar George Alencherry, Major Archbishop of Syro-Malabar Catholic Church says: "We recognize that the vocation of the Church is to be a missionary and we have to rekindle the embers of our apostolic zeal. We have to continue our prayers for the showering of the gifts of the Holy Spirit on the Church as well as on us." According to him, the youth is the hope of the Church. She wants to appropriate the special talents of the Youth like their imagination and creativity for the missionary apostolate of the Church. This mission week should help to increase missionaries in our Church and to help those missionaries who are working in the missions to do their ministries with full dedication. We celebrate the mission week especially to respect, honour and remember the love of the martyrs who gave their life for their mission.

For St John Paul II, being essentially missionary does not mean merely that the Church has a universal mission to all humanity. Instead, it means that in her constitutive reality, in her soul, and thus it could be said in her very psychology, she possesses a dynamism that concretely unfolds in preaching the Gospel, in spreading the faith and in calling to conversion. This interior drive, intimately linked to her mission, comes from the Holy Spirit and is therefore part of her mystery. The dynamism that comes from it is thus expressed as a distinctive characteristic of the whole Church. This is shown in a concrete and effective way especially in those who, starting with the apostles, go to regions far from their land for the sake of the Gospel.

The Pope acknowledges the fact that all the members within the Church are not called upon to go to the mission lands. Even if all are not called personally to go to the mission lands, each one in the Church and with the Church has the task of spreading the light of the Gospel, according to the saving mission passed on by the Redeemer to the ecclesial community. Indeed, all are called to cooperate in this mission.

In the last decades, Syro-Malabar Church has recognized this truth and has been sending missionaries to different parts of the world. The missionary Eparchies, beginning with Chanda established on 31 March 1962, have played great role in spreading the message of Jesus Christ. Our Eparchy too was originally begun as a mission territory of the Archdiocese of Changanassery. Two years ago, Pope Francis extended the territory of our Eparchy asking us to spread the message of Christ that we have received from the missionaries to the wider population within the State of Tamilnadu. We have already begun our missions in Madurai and Tirunelveli. I am sure in this New Year we will be able to expand our missionary work to other parts of our State.

Hence, it is our duty to encourage our people and mission league children to become part of this mission of the Church. The Syro-Malabar mission week that we are going to celebrate in our diocese is on 5 and 6 January 2019 should become a launching pad for our missionary activities in the newly added territories. I invite all of you, dear Fathers, to encourage our people to become part of this venture by contributing their mite in ways that are possible to them so that we can be faithful to our mission.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Blessing of Marian Senai Office: Since its inception in our Eparchy, the Marian Senai did not have a proper place for its members to gather and pray. The executive meetings were normally held at Soosaipuram due to lack of a proper office. The Eparchy has now offered the Marian Sena an office-cum-hall in the first floor of the former Chrisma Shop at Padanthalumoodu for organising regular prayers and meetings. This office was blessed on 8 December 2018. In the presence of Rev. Fr Jose Muttathupadam, Spiritual Director, Rev. Fr Thomas Sathianesan, Chancellor, Rev. CONCLUSION

We have just celebrated the birth of Jesus. Let the Christmas wish of our Holy Father Pope Francis ring in our ears as we conclude the celebration of Christmas. “May the little child whom we contemplate today in the manger, in the cold of the night, watch over all the children of the world, and every frail, vulnerable and discarded person...May all of us receive peace and consolation from the birth of the Saviour and, in the knowledge that we are loved by the one heavenly Father, realize anew that we are brothers and sisters and come to live as such!”

With my prayers and blessings,

Yours in Christ Jesus,

+ George Rajendran SDB
Bishop of Thuckalay
